

History

- 1961 Company founded in Munich, starting with a small selection of industrial adhesives such as polyester fillers and epoxy resins
- 1989 Espe Dental, a medtech company, takes over DELO
- 1994 Relocation from Munich to Landsberg
- 1997 In a management buy-out by Dr. Wolf-Dietrich Herold and Sabine Herold, DELO becomes an independent company again
- 2000 Growth of 23 percent: DELO gains sales revenues of DM 20 million
- 2004 Opening of an own representative office in Shanghai, China
- 2005 Opening of an representative office in Singapore, giving DELO further presence in Asia
- 2006/07 Relocation of all facilities to Windach
- 2007 Foundation of a subsidiary in Boston, USA
- 2008 By the end of the fiscal year, DELO employs 210 people and has topped the revenue mark of EUR 30 million, with revenues from abroad making up for 50 per cent
- 2009 Opening of an representative office in Taiwan
- 2010 DELO closes the year of crisis 2009/2010 with stable revenues
- 2011 DELO increases its sales by 40 percent over the previous year
Managing Partner Sabine Herold is elected into the committees of BDI (Federation of German Industries) and VCI (German Chemical Industry Association)

- 2012 German Minister of Economics Philipp Rösler inaugurates a new laboratory building
DELO founds a subsidiary in Singapore
- 2013 350 employees gain sales revenues of more than € 50 million
Foundation of a subsidiary in Shanghai, China
DELO constructs a production and logistics building of 5,000 square meters
- 2014 Opening of representative offices in Malaysia and Korea
- 2015 DELO generates revenues of more than EUR 74 million
Extension of partner network: New distributors in Brazil, Mexico, Turkey and the Philippines
- 2017 German Minister of Economics Johanna Wanka inaugurates a new administration building
DELO founds a subsidiary in Yokohama, Japan
- 2018 660 employees achieve record sales revenue of € 159 million and thus record growth of 67% compared to the previous year